Welcome to an exceptional farmstead offering two distinct homes, set against the breathtaking backdrop of southwest mountain and pastoral views. The secondary home, packed with over 1,900 square feet of upgraded living space, features soaring vaulted wood ceilings, a striking gas stone fireplace, rich hardwood flooring, and expansive newer windows that flood the interior with natural light. Enjoy a modern open-concept kitchen and dining area, complete with upgraded stainless steel appliances and a cozy wood-burning fireplace—perfect for family meals and entertaining. The lower level offers a massive recreation room, ideal for gatherings and relaxation. Outdoors, you'll fall in love with the traditional hip-roof barn, adorned with classic red tin siding, and a small shop to support your hobbies or farming needs. The 156-acre parcel includes a vast hay field and a serene pond located near the secondary residence. This unique property blends modern comfort with timeless rural charm—an ideal setting for multi-generational living, hobby farming, or simply embracing a peaceful country lifestyle.
