Welcome to this bright and inviting family home tucked away at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac in the mature, highly sought-after neighborhood of Hidden Valley. With only a handful of homes changing hands in the last 15 years, this is a rare opportunity to join a community known for its excellent neighbors and long-standing traditions. The entire exterior of the home has just been re-done with brand new siding, eavestroughs, downspouts, and a brand new garage door. Step inside to a freshly painted interior with brand-new baseboards on every level. The soaring two-story entryway and 9-foot ceilings on the main floor create a spacious, airy atmosphere filled with natural light from the home's many windows. The thoughtful design makes this a truly comfortable home year-round: the north-facing backyard keeps things bright, but cool in the summer, while the south-facing driveway ensures snow melts quickly in the winter. The main living spaces flow beautifully, offering both functionality and style. Upstairs, the primary suite features a luxurious soaker tub and an oversized, well laidout, walk-in closet. The walk-out basement expands your living options with an extra-large storage room, as well as a charming window seat with a built-in storage bench. Large rec area and space for a home gym or office complete the lower level. Enjoy the privacy of your own yard, framed by mature trees (including 2 different types of apple trees) that provide shade and a sense of seclusion. Entertain with ease thanks to the new upper and lower DuraDeck, already equipped with a hot tub hookup on the lower level. Whether it's summer barbecues, fall evenings under the stars, or winter gatherings, this yard is ready to be enjoyed in every season.
